DECLARES SOME MEMBERS LEAD THE DEVIL'S FORCES

"If Christ Came to Baltimore," Is Handled Without Gloves.
Church Folks Gasp.

Special Dispatch to The Star.

BALTIMORE, Md., April 6.—"I don't believe I would have to leave the corporate limits of Baltimore to find people mean and vile enough to cry 'Crucify Him' if Jesus Christ were to come to Baltimore tonight and were to walk down Charles street." Eighteen thousand people who filled the Tabernacle heard Billy Sunday make that declaration last night in the course of his sermon on "If Christ Should Come to Baltimore."

He handled his theme characteristically, without gloves, and at times the multitude that heard him sent murmurs of astonished gasps to the board ceiling. At other times it applauded, and once many persons laughed. It was mirth that somehow did not fit in, and Sunday reproved it. The laughter, the reproof and the remark that had caused it made an episode that left a sting.

Asks What Would He Do? Sunday, after sticking closely to the text of his sermon, was interpolating a bit, speculating as to what Christ would do if He were to come here.

"Would He spend His time on the

G. W. U. ALUMNI PLANNING TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

Informal Reception and Dancing to Follow Business Session—Seniors to Be Special Guests.

The Alumni Association of George Washington University will hold its annual meeting on Friday night, April 14, at the James Ormond Wilson Normal School, 11th and Harvard streets northwest. After the business meeting there will be an informal reception in the gymnasium of the school, followed by dancing. All graduates of the university, whether members of the alumni association or not, have been invited to attend. Seniors in the nine departments of the university will be the special guests. A buffet supper will be served. Dr. Howard Lincoln Hodgkins, dean of the College of Engineering and secretary of the institution, is in general charge of arrangements.

Officers of the association are: Stephen E. Kramer, president; Percival Hall, John Paul Earnest, Henry W. Draper, E. G. Selbert, Mark R. Woodward and Deles H. Smith, vice presidents; Howard L. Hodgkins, secretary; L. Russell Alden, E. Roger Moyle, Walter C. Cleburne, Dr. E. M. Colvin, Dr. S. Dammann, Harry C. Davis, Henry W. Draper, John Paul Earnest, M. Ella Given, Percival Hall, Dr. A. W. Kenner, H. H. Kimball, John B. Lerner, Dr. H. S. Lewis, Dr. R. E. Madigan, H. P. Middleton, Soterios Nicholson, Dr. E. G. Selbert, Deles H. Smith, Elmer Stewart, Dr. M. F. Thompson, Mark F. Woodward and Bessie L. Yoder.

FOR THE CHILD LABOR BILL. The Senate committee on interstate commerce yesterday by a vote of six to five ordered a favorable report on the child labor bill which recently passed the House. The committee amended the House bill in several particulars. The principal amendment would prohibit the shipping in either interstate or foreign commerce any goods manufactured in whole or in part by children under fourteen years of age. It was argued by the committee that it is more within the power of Congress to continue the prohibition on interstate commerce than it would be to apply the prohibition to manufacture. Deles H. Smith, Elmer Stewart, Dr. M. F. Thompson, Mark F. Woodward and Bessie L. Yoder.

COURT SIGNS DECREE. Mrs. Mary S. Murphy Separated From Husband—Appeal Taken. Mrs. Mary S. Murphy has been granted a legal separation from Dr. Walter C. Murphy on a charge of cruelty. The decree, signed by Justice Anderson, awards the wife $4,500 in full satisfaction of all alimony and a fee of $500 to her counsel. The court also enjoined Dr. Murphy from disposing of about $12,000 worth of notes secured on real estate until further order of court.

Program in Honor of Belgian King. The forty-first birthday of the King of Belgium is to be celebrated by the members of the District Belgian relief committee Saturday at 1307 F street northwest, the observance to take the form of a shoe donation party for the benefit of King Albert's destitute and often barefooted subjects. The committee members urgently request donations of a pair of shoes or the price thereof. No 38 boys' and men's footgear are especially wanted, but women's and misses' shoes will be gratefully received.

Stolen Jewelry Returned in Mail. Yesterday's mail brought to the residence of Alfred French, 2712 Cathedral avenue, a parcel post package containing several gold watches and other articles of jewelry stolen from the house Monday night. A diamond stick-pin and several of the more valuable articles taken from the house were not among the returned property.
